

Course Offerings

The program includes but is not limited to:

- Introduction to Radiologic Technology
- Patient Care
- Radiographic Procedures I, II, III, IV, V, VI, & VII
- Radiographic Procedures Capstone
- Medical Terminology
- Image Analysis
- Exposure Principles
- Radiation Protection & Biology
- Digital Imaging and Acquisition
- Radiologic Physics & Equipment
- Advanced Imaging Modalities
- Radiographic Pathology
- Introduction to Cross Sectional Anatomy
- Clinical Education
- Registry Review

 A 75% average is required for all courses.*

See Student Handbook for course descriptions

Student Services

The following services are available to any enrolled student:

- Physical Examination (Required for Admission)
- Counseling
- Mentoring
- Tutoring
- Free Parking
- Cafeteria Discount
- Employee Health Services
- Fitness Center Discount
- Daycare Center Discount
- Internet Access for Research Purposes
- Student E-mail Account

Graduation Requirements

- All academic requirements completed
- All clinical requirements completed
- All obligations to Huntsville Hospital and/or the Huntsville Hospital School of Radiologic Technology satisfied.
- Upon completion of the program, the graduate earns an Associate Degree in Occupational Technology which entitles him/her to apply to take the ARRT credentialing examination to become a registered radiologic technologist.