KIDS HELPING KIDS WITH CANCER!

Kids today are beating cancer better than ever before (the 5-year survival rate is now 80 percent compared to 60 percent in the mid 1970's). Huntsville Hospital for Women & Children provides special medical care for kids with cancer — and you can help!

September is Childhood Cancer Awareness Month. Fun Run participants are invited to help local kids with cancer and support pediatric oncology at Huntsville Hospital for Women & Children.

Start collecting donations today from family and friends and bring them with you on race day. You will receive a special keepsake to show that you are helping kids with cancer!

Huntsville Hospital for Women & Children serves pediatric oncology patients and their families from across the Tennessee Valley.

RACE INFORMATION ♦ SEPT. 22, 2016

Who can run in the race?

Any child, preschool through 8th grade, may run and receive a T-shirt. Parents may run with smaller children, but adults do not receive T-shirts.

If child misses his scheduled race, can he run with another group?

Yes. A child can run in another category if he misses his group or if he feels more comfortable running with a friend or sibling. But a child can only win or place when he runs with his own grade category. He will receive a T-shirt and participation ribbon, but he will not qualify for a medal or placement ribbon.

Location/Parking

The one-mile fun run course is located at the Jaycees Building on the north end of the runway of the old Huntsville Airport. You are asked to enter the area via Airport Road from South Memorial Parkway and to exit the event using Johnson Road and Leeman Ferry Road. Allow ample travel time.

Is there a registration fee?

There is no registration fee, but donations to Huntsville Hospital Foundation are appreciated and will benefit pediatric oncology at Huntsville Hospital for Women & Children.

Fair Play

To officially place in any race a child must cross the finish line alone. You may run with your child, but you cannot assist in a placement. Make sure your child understands the race course. Each child must begin at the starting line to qualify for a placement ribbon or T-shirt.

Who receives a T-shirt?

Each child who finishes the race will receive a T-shirt and a participation ribbon. There will only be one T-shirt per child regardless of the number of times the child runs. Sizes will consist of youth x-small, youth small, youth medium, youth large, adult small, adult medium and adult large, and will be distributed on a first-come first-serve basis.

Lost Child/Parent

In the event a child and parent cannot locate each other, please go to Lost & Found near the award stage.

Publicity

Please note that the Fun Run is a public event which may attract media attention. Huntsville Hospital also takes photographs that may be used for marketing, advertising and social media purposes. By participating in this event, you grant the right to use you or your child's image(s) for such purposes.
